France and Clifford Baras, of Elkton, will publish the paper, but E. W. B. Brewer will retain the proprietorship. The Review is a weekly sheet, ably edited, and it is to be hoped that the new venture may prove a success.

Fast Service Resumed.

The Chicago trains, which were discontinued four weeks ago on account of the damaged condition of the E. & T. H. track just west of Evansville, have been put back on the road, the work of repairing the large crevasse having been completed. There has been no change of schedule. The North bound train passes at 9:30 a. m., and the south bound passes at 11:22 p. m. Neither train does any local business and only three or four stops are made between Nashville and Evansville.

Hail Does Great Damage.

The heavy rain storm which passed over this section yesterday morning was accompanied in many places by hail. The stones varied in size from a buck shot to a hickory nut and it is feared that much damage was done to the fruit crop. The rain fell in torrents for several hours, and the low lands to again become inundated. In an hour the streams were out of their banks and Little River was higher than it has been for several years.

Wants $3,000 Damages.

F. C. Arvin, a former attendant at the Asylum, has filed suit for $3,000 damages against Dr. P. A. Miller, first assistant physician of that institution. The case will come up at the June term.

Trigg County Nominations.

Cadiz, Ky., April 6.--At the joint Democratic and Populist primary held here Saturday the following officers were nominated: Representative, Dr. J. B. Luckey; Circuit Clerk, A. C. Burnett; County Judge, John D. Shaw; County Attorney, Denny P. Smith; County Clerk, F. K. Grasty; Sheriff, N. B. Pollard; School Superintendent, Alfred Cunningham; Assessor, J. H. White; Jailor, G. A. Shoemaker; Coroner, Albert Allen; Constable, Thomas Finley.

Arthur W. Fleet, charged with the murder of Jesse Tyne, was arraigned at Lexington and pleaded not guilty, the trial being set for Thursday.

THE MURRAY CONVENTION.

No Results Likely to be Reached Today.

The Judicial district convention at Murray was organized yesterday afternoon, but no news was received up to the hour of going to press.

The judge's race turns out to be more in doubt than it at first appeared. Judge Cook will be two votes short of a nomination on the first ballot and a combination on Phelps is possible. If Lyon's official report is correct, the candidates will have the following strength:

COOK PHELPS BURNETT
Calloway	13
Christian	296	1144	141
Lyon	3168		150
Trigg	53		747
Total	1999	1144	1038

In the attorney's race, the vote stands in Christian and Trigg counties, Hanbery 10.83, Howell 9.05, Sims 4.12. Lyon is unreported, though all of the candidates got some strength. Hanbery and Sims probably got a larger proportion. The indications were that the three candidates would go in with about 12, 10 and 6 votes respectively, without counting Calloway, which is unreported. Commonwealth's Attorney, Jas. B. Gannett is at Murray as a delegate from Trigg county and there is some talk about springing his name as a dark horse. It is not likely that anything of the sort will be done, unless there should be a protracted deadlock.

The delegates in attendance from this county are C. H. Bush, W. T. Cooper, W. S. Hale, J. T. Wall, C. M. Henshaw, T. C. Hanbery, W. B. Neely, Frank Bell, J. B. Allenworth, J. H. Carlsson and J. O. Cook.

Fiscal Court Proceedings.

The Fiscal court is still in session and will not finish up the business until to-morrow.

Tuesday and Wednesday were taken up in receiving reports and allowing claims against the county.

The railroad bond matter is claiming the attention of the court to-day and the terms and conditions of the new bonds will be fixed.

A committee was appointed yesterday to confer with the city council relative to putting up an iron bridge to take the place of the rock bridge on North Main.

John M. Dulin was reappointed road supervisor for North Christian and J. H. Dillman for South Christian.

Logan County Democrats.

Russellville, Ky., April 5.--The Democrats of Logan county have nominated the following ticket: County Judge, J. W. Clark; Sheriff, Marsh Neely; Jailor, W. T. Price; Assessor, Ed Clark; School Superintendent, Mrs. Anna K. Broderick; County Clerk, M. B. Morton; Circuit Clerk, Louis Evans; Representative in Legislature, W. W. Gill; Surveyor, Pryton Dey; Magistrate, J. S. Flowers; Constable, Sam Proctor.

Agel Farmer Committee Solicited.

Trenton, Ky., April 6.--J. R. Row, a farmer, aged eighty, and residing at Pineham, a few miles east of this place, committed suicide yesterday in his room by shooting himself through the head. The deceased lived with a son and had been in bad health for years, which is supposed to have brought about mental aberration, causing the desperate deed. The body was taken home.

Cumberland Coal Co. Fails.

The assets amount to $50,000; liabilities about the same. The mines caught fire two weeks ago, and since then have not been operated.

Minister McKenzie Ill.

A dispatch from Lima, Peru, dated April 6, says: "The illness from which United States Minister James A. McKenzie has been suffering for some days has devoted the most serious and dangerous attack to the brain. To-day his physicians have little hope that he will recover."

Wedded in Nashville.

Trenton, Ky., April 7.--James C. White, of Evansville, Ind., and Miss Mattie B. Sullivan, of this place, were married at 6 o'clock last night at the residence of Joe Edwards, in Nashville. Rev. A. J. Ramsey performed the ceremony.

Madisonville, Ky., April 7.--Mrs. L. A. Farns, owner of a millinery goods, assigned here to-day. Attorney Ruby Lafon was chosen as assignee. Liabilities $1,500; assets $500.

SPRING ELECTIONS.

DEMOCRATS SEEM TO BE GETTING TOGETHER.

Sweeping Victories in Ohio, Michigan and Other States.

Cincinnati, April 6.--The election in Cincinnati to-day was for Mayor and other city officers and members of the Board of Legislation. The Republican ticket was headed by Levi C. Goodale, for Mayor, and the Democratic ticket by Gustav T. Telfer, the latter being elected by a plurality of 7,320, while the city gave McKinley a plurality of almost 20,000 last November, and Caldwell, Republican, for Mayor, three years ago, a plurality of 6,755.

Although local issues controlled most of the municipal elections to-day, yet the general results throughout Ohio show Democratic gains along the lake shore, the river counties and in the interior counties. This gives the Democrats control of most of the machinery for the election next November of State officers and members of the Legislature. Gov. Bushnell will stand for a second term. Senator Mark A. Hanna is the Republican candidate for Senator, and John R. McLean the free silver candidate for Senator. These three leaders, as well as ex-Senator Bryan, interested parties, and contributed directly and indirectly to the organized efforts of the canvass.

The Democrats are successful in Cincinnati--Hamilton, Zanesville, Springfield (Gov. Bushnell's home), Akron, Canton, (McKinley's home) Columbus, Dayton, Sandusky, Newark, Circleville, Millersburg, Pomeroy, Columbus, Bucyrus, New Bremen, Kent, St. Mary's, Wapakoneta, Tiffin, Napoleon, Bradford Junction, Portersville and Youngstown.

The Republicans elected city officers in Cleveland (by reduced majority) Ironton, Toledo, Sandusky, Newark, Alliance and Warren.

At least twenty of the towns that went Democratic went last year for McKinley.

Michigan.

Detroit, April 5.--William C. Maybury, Democrat, was elected Mayor to-day by about 300 majority over Capt. Albert E. Steward, Republican. In view of Mr. Maybury's victory, it is considered probable that Judge Miner, Democratic candidate for Police Justice, was defeated by Judge Albert F. Sellers, Republican who was re-elected by a vote fully equal to that received by Maybury.

Maybury's election is looked upon as a decided defeat for Gov. Pingree, who practically named Capt. Steward as his successor as Mayor after the courts had overruled the Governor's contention that he could hold both the offices of Governor and Mayor. Midnight estimates based upon returns thus far received from the State, give Long upwards of 20,000 plurality in Supreme Court Justice. The Republican candidate for regent of the University are elected by probably somewhat lesser pluralities, as Judge Long ran ahead of his ticket generally. McKinley majority in Michigan was about 50,000. Pingree's for Governor was 20,000 greater. To-day's vote was light at most points, and while many free-silver agitators are noted in the smaller cities, there were a few slumps favorable to the Republicans.

Democrats also elected their tickets in Grand Rapids, Battle Creek, Manistee and St. Joseph.

Indiana.

Evansville, Ind., April 5.--The Democrats elected Wm. M. Akin, Jr., Mayor, and eleven Councilmen. The city went Republican in November last.

Illinois.

Chicago, Ill., April 7.--Chicago has been redeemed. Carter H. Harrison, the Democratic candidate for Mayor, was elected yesterday by an enormous plurality and an actual majority over all. Last fall McKinley had 204,000 votes in Chicago and a plurality of 59,000 out of 349,000 votes cast, of which Bryan received 145,000. Yesterday the vote was as follows: Carter H. Harrison (Dem.), 144,824; M. H. Harkin (Ind.), 67,072; N. C. Seam (Rep.), 57,596; W. Hesing (Business administration), 15,116; John Glumbek (Socialist labor), 2,224; J. L. Parmlee (Pro.), 852; J. L. Pearce, Jr. (Ind.), 686; F. Howard Collier (Ind.), 88.

Total 287,435. Harrison's plurality, 76,656, Harrison's majority over all, 2,222. Complete returns from all the wards show the election of twenty-three Democratic aldermen, and the Republicans and the Independents. As a result the Democrats will have a majority of eight over all in the next council.

The Harrison supporters have taken the town. Innumerable parades have been arranged and brass bands may be heard in every direction. Mr. Harrison is president of the allied silver clubs of Chicago and his ties measured victory is taken as an indication of a rapidly political upheaval.

Carter H. Harrison is the son of the late Mayor Harrison, who was assassinated during the closing days of the World's Fair. The popularity of his father was an immense advantage to the Mayor in his campaign and contributed to the victory of today. Mr. Harrison is 37 years old and has never before held a political office.

Mayor-elect Harrison has received the following telegram from Washington:

"Accept congratulations upon your magnificent victory. The elections in Chicago, Cincinnati, Detroit and other cities indicate a decided change in public sentiment since November."

W. J. Bryan.

FIRST BILL PASSED.

It is to protect public speakers in this State—Mr. Morgan's bill killed.

Frankfort, Ky., April 6.—The bill to prevent the disturbing of public speakers and the throwing of eggs and missiles is the first to pass both houses. It was introduced by Mr. W. H. Morgan of Washington county, on account of the outrages during the recent campaign in this State. The bill passed the House with only eight votes in opposition. It passed the Senate last week with an amendment, striking out "lawful subjects." The bill as passed by the Senate makes it unlawful to interrupt public speakers on any subject. It came up in the House this morning, and was passed by a vote of 82 to 1, the one opponent being Mr. Perry.

Mr. Carroll, from the Committee on Judiciary, reported the Court of Appeals Relief Bill with the expression of opinion that it ought to pass. The bill provides for four stenographers for the Appellate Judges at a salary of $1,000 each. The stenographers are to be appointed by the Judges for a period of two years.

Several amendments offered were defeated, and the bill passed by a vote of 69 to 22.

Frankfort, Ky., April 7.—Mr. J. W. Morgan's House bill to amend the charter of Hopkinsville was refused its third reading and thus killed. The amendment was a mere form on an equal footing with fourth class cities.

Cure for Hog Cholera.

Pembroke, Ky., April 4th, 1897.

EDITOR KENTUCKIAN.—

In traveling over Kentucky, I frequently hear the question: "What will cure hogs of the cholera? What will prevent hogs from having cholera?" I have seen the following remedy very efficiently used:

Black powdered antimony 1 pint, Pulverized sulphur 1 pint, Salt petre 1 pint.

Mix well with plenty of bran in milk warm water, and feed this quantity to 50 hogs at one feed. If used as a preventive, give it once every three or four weeks; if used as a cure, give it two or three times a week. Some times it is hard to get hogs to eat the remedy, but mix with plenty of bran, enough will be eaten to prevent, or cure as the case may be.

Again I frequently hear asked, what will cure a horse with scabs, or dog with mange, or roach burn, itch, eczema and other skin diseases? I have seen the following remedy used in nearly all of the above named cases, both for man and beast, and a cure was effected in each case:

Equal parts of hog lard, soft (ye) soap and tar; mix thoroughly and apply to diseased parts. I got the remedy from an old soldier. He told me, that during the war, his army was in camp back of Glasgow, Ky., and nearly every one in his regiment had the army itch. It irritated the men so, that notwithstanding the weather was cold and snow on the ground, they had to sleep without any cover on them. An old farmer who lived back in the hills, came along one day and he was asked what would cure the army itch? He recommended the above remedy; the soldiers used it and in less than 10 days the entire regiment was cured.

It is said that the army itch is the hardest of all skin diseases to cure. My dog had a very bad case of the mange and I used this remedy on him; it was but a short time and he was entirely well. The better the mixture can be kept applied the quicker the cure. The hard soaps, the soap cleanses and the tar heals. I suggest the two harmless remedies to the farmers and other people of Christian county with the hope that they may be benefited by the use of them.

Very Respectfully,

FANK B. RICHARDSON.

A STRATEGIC LINE.

The Trans-Siberian Railway and War in the Far East.

The German military paper, the Militar Wochenblatt, has recently published an exhaustive article on this important subject, of which the following is a summary: "Since the Chinese-Japanese war introduced a new factor into the question of the balance of power in the Pacific Russia has had to consider the means of maintaining her supremacy in eastern Asia. For that reason she must pursue her railway to Vladivostok without delay. The first suggestion for such a strategic line was made as far back as 1857, but it was not until 1886 that the project took tangible form. It is said that the English railway across Canada compelled the Russian authorities to admit the need of a Siberian line. In May, 1891, the late czar gave his formal sanction to the scheme, and the present emperor turned the first sod of the line at Vladivostok. The whole line from Tientsin to Vladivostok will be 7,630 kilometers, or about 5,000 miles, and it is divided into six sections. Several of these sections will be completed by the year 1900, but the German writer does not think that the Stretch of Khabarovka section will be completed before 1905. He assumes that Russia's policy in the far east will, therefore, continue pacific until that year. When the line is finished a train traveling at the rate of 20 miles an hour for 15 hours a day will take three weeks from Moscow to Vladivostok. If the rate is slightly accelerated and the train proceeds during the night, which is doubtful for several reasons, the journey will be accomplished in a fortnight. The following seem to be natural and safe conclusions from these facts. Japan requires only one week to reach the Korean port of Genoa, which is the nearest to the Russian frontier; but, on the other hand, Genoa is further from the Russian frontier than is Vladivostok, and the Russian fleet would also have to be counted with before the Japanese could land in Korea. With regard to the transport of troops Russia and Japan would, therefore, be on a strategic equality. But if China were Russia's belligerent instead of Japan, the strategic advantage would be entirely in favor of China, provided only that she carries out her project of northern railway across Manchuria. For this reason Russia is establishing a cordon of military colonies as a protection for the line of railway in the future."
